

Living with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder in the Family: Trying Differently Not Harder

FREE workshop

With Special Guest Presenter
Australian Author
Elizabeth Russell

Elizabeth Russell is the birth mothers of two adult sons diagnosed with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders. She is the author of three books published by Zeus Publishing in Australia on her experiences raising her children into adulthood and advocating for improved services for affected families.

Elizabeth will share "What works and What Doesn't Work" when FASD is a factor for the family.

Joining Elizabeth will be parents and health professionals from New Zealand sharing their own experiences of what works.

Register before 26/04/2010 to:

Christine Rogan
Alcohol Healthwatch
Tel: 09 520 7037
Fax: 09 520 7175
Email: christine@ahw.org.nz

Thursday 29th April 2010

10.00am–2.30pm

Barry Court Hotel

Endeavour Room

10-20 Gladstone Road,

Parnell, Auckland.

Programme (includes lunch):

Morning : Trying Differently Not Harder—stories and strategies.

Afternoon: Panel and facilitated discussion forum.

Proudly supported by:

Alcohol Healthwatch
Whakatūpato Waipiro

This presentation forms part of community awareness action in association with the Fetal Alcohol Network New Zealand (FANNZ), which is coordinated by Alcohol Healthwatch. FANNZ provides a communication network for people with an interest in Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder www.fan.org.nz