Sir Ian Gilmore FRCP, FRACP

New Zealand is fortunate enough this year to host one of the world's leading alcohol policy experts, UK based Professor Sir Ian Gilmore. Sir Ian Gilmore will be conducting a series of lectures from 13-16 September 2010.

Sir Ian Gilmore has an extensive background in alcohol reform having chaired the Royal College of Physicians' Alcohol Working Party Report, belonging to the Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Alcohol and Drugs and continuing to chair the United Kingdom Alcohol Committee and Alcohol Health Alliance. He has also been involved in writing a number of alcohol reports, including:

- Alcohol - Can the NHS afford it? A blueprint for a coherent alcohol strategy. (2001)
- Calling time: The nation's drinking habits as a major health issue. (2004)

Professor Sir Ian Gilmore is a Consultant Physician, Gastroenterologist and Professor in the Department of Medicine at the Royal Liverpool University Hospital. He is past-President of the Royal College of Physicians, London and was awarded an Honorary Fellowship from the Royal Australasian College of Physicians in 2008.
