

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder and Justice

FREE Seminar

Presenting .....
Forensic Psychologist

Dr Natalie Novick Brown

Dr Brown is an Assistant Professor of Psychology from the USA, who specialises in forensic psychological assessments for adolescents and adults with a Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder. Dr Brown has testified over 300 times in civil, criminal, and federal jurisdictions. Dr Brown is also the Program Director and Chief Psychologist for FASD Experts, a multidisciplinary forensic assessment group. Further information about Dr. Brown's work can be found at <http://fasdexperts.com/>

*****

Registration and inquiries to :

Christine Rogan

Alcohol Healthwatch

Tel: 09 520 7037 Fax: 09 520 7037

Email: christine@ahw.org.nz

Wednesday 31st March 2010

9.00am–4.00pm

Barry Court Hotel

Endeavour Room

10-20 Gladstone Road,

Parnell, Auckland.

********

Programme (includes lunch):

9.00am– 12.00pm–Understanding FASD in the criminal justice context.

12.45pm–1.30pm–The NZ experience.

1.30pm–4.00pm–The FASD forensic assessment process. (Please indicate your intention to attend this afternoon session).

Proudly supported by:

This presentation forms part of community awareness action in association with the Fetal Alcohol Network New Zealand (FANNZ), which is coordinated by Alcohol Healthwatch. FANNZ provides a communication network for people with an interest in Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder www.fan.org.nz